HOCKEY GEORGIANS LOSE, TIE IN U.S., FACE BISHOP'S, MCGILL.

Coach Paul Arsenault's hockey club returns to Quebec University Athletic Association Wednesday night when they meet the Bishop's University Gaiters, coached by Al Grazys.

The Georgians have only played one league game so far--a Nov. 10 3-0 win over McGill Redmen, who they face again this Friday night at McGill.

The Gaiters have 16 returnees from last year's team and should give the Georgians and their fans a good idea of the strong type of competition that will be the rule in the QUAA this season.

Among returning lettermen are--all-star goalie Alain Hebert, all-star forward Ron Perowne, Rob McLernon, Tim Manning and Don Campbell, all forwards.

Bishop's played two QUAA games during the past weekend, tying RMC 3-2 and smashing McGill 13-4, on the strength of an eight-goal third period.

The Georgians were in action on the weekend as well, down in New York State against two American College teams.

Friday night, they were beaten 6-1 by Clarkson College and Saturday they battled to a 3-3 tie with St. Lawrence in a game that ended in confusion.

In the Clarkson game, the Georgians ran up against a strong skating club and were also victimized by some interesting officiating.

Sir George was assessed 52 of 70 minutes in penalties doled out and one player was ejected from the game after a dispute with one of the officials.

The lone Georgian scorer was Mark Shewchuck, who tallied mid-way through the third period.

Shewchuck also scored Saturday night as Sir George battled from behind to tie St. Lawrence..

The game went to overtime and ended just past the two-minute mark with one of the minor officials the centre of controversy.

A goal judge from St. Lawrence flashed the red goal light on a shot by one of the home club's players. Play continued for 40 seconds before officials stopped to investigate.

First they allowed the goal, then they didn't and no one leaving the rink was really sure what the final score was.

John Murray and Phil Turner scored the other goals for Sir George and goalie Bernie Wolfe turned in a strong performance between the pipes.

Following their games this week against Bishop's and McGill, the Georgians meet University of Montreal Carabins at the U of M Arena next Wednesday. They then travel to Kingston for weekend games against RMC and Queen's.

BASKETBALL

The basketball Georgians dropped a heartbreaker out at Macdonald College last Friday night, losing a 95-90 decision to the Clansmen for their second loss in as many Quebec University Athletic Association games.

This week, coach Wilf Jackson's squad hopes to get back on the right track with games against Bishop's and Sherbrooke.

The Georgians meet the Garth Smith-coached Bishop's Gaiters Thursday night at 8:00 p.m. at the Loyola Gym and then next night, they play host to Sherbrooke.

In last week's game against Macdonald, the Georgians held a 45-40 lead at the half with Tom Brethel providing most of the offensive punch, hooping 22 points.

But poor rebounding and the fouling out of three key ball players--Brethel, Mike Hickey and Cary Braver--killed the Sir George hopes of their first QUAA win.

Brethel fouled out of the game just after knotting the score for SGU and the Clansmen, led by all-star guard Jim Guild went on to score six points and wrap up the victory.

The Sir George loss to Macdonald was their second in four days. Last Tuesday, they were beaten 77-64 by McGill Redmen. Brethel again led the Sir George scorers with 26 points while Mike Hickey and Jeff Neiman each had 12.
